3rd Annual Berg-Seeger Track & Field Classic

The 3rd Annual Berg-Seeger Track & Field Classic is three months away and our school community is extremely excited to be your host. This Classic is open to all Deaf High School athletes, including School for the Deaf and Mainstream programs. The purpose for this Classic is to promote interest in track & field among high schools, mainstream programs, and schools for the Deaf. There will be a prelims and a few events on Friday the 16th starting at 6pm and events and finals will take place on Saturday with a morning time tentatively set for 9am.

As mentioned in a letter send out on October 21, 2009, Model will provide meals starting with dinner on Friday, lunch and dinner on Saturday. Your school will be responsible for lodging at a nearby designated hotel that serves breakfast and direct supervision of your athletes. Model will provide transportation to and from the hotel to campus.

It's imperative that schools call and make their room reservations as soon as possible.
